

REDTEAM® CREATIONS LIMITED PRIVACY POLICY

PRIVACY POLICY

GENERAL

Redteam® Creations Limited Data Recovery B.V. ("Redteam® Creations Limited") has the utmost respect for the privacy for the clients of all the services offered by Redteam® Creations Limited ("Services"). Redteam® Creations Limited attempts to ensure the privacy of all its clients. The personal data provided by client through the Services is handled in a proper and careful manner by Redteam® Creations Limited in accordance with the current privacy legislation and this privacy policy.

PURPOSE(S)

Redteam® Creations Limited uses the personal data provided by clients to fulfill the agreement for the delivery of Services and to manage communication with clients. In particular, personal data is recorded and processed in the online extranet system from Redteam® Creations Limited ("ZEN"). Redteam® Creations Limited will process personal data only to the extent necessary to fulfill these purposes. The amount of personal data processed is limited to what is necessary.

Redteam® Creations Limited collects information not directly traceable to users in order to count the number of visitors to the website and to identify the type of web browser or operating system being used. This information allows Redteam® Creations Limited to ensure that the website meets the needs of our users.

Finally, Redteam® Creations Limited uses IP-addresses (or the proxy server used to gain entrance to the Internet) to establish from which computers the website and/or ZEN is visited in order to protect such against hacking. If Redteam® Creations Limited is harassed, Redteam® Creations Limited can also use this information to find the perpetrator. Additionally, this information is used to analyze trends in order to continue to better the Services. The link between a client's IP-address and personal data will never be provided to a third party without client's permission, unless required under law.

USE

In order to realize Redteam® Creations Limited purpose, it's necessary to collect certain personal data. By purchasing Services from Redteam® Creations Limited, client gives Redteam® Creations Limited its explicit permission to process your personal data.

Redteam® Creations Limited takes measures to ensure that personal data is accurate, adequate, relevant and that the processing is not excessive.

Redteam® Creations Limited will never sell client's personal data or provide it to third parties without client's explicit permission.

SECURING PRIVACY INFORMATION

Redteam® Creations Limited takes appropriate organizational and technical measures to protect personal data against loss, unauthorized access or any form of unlawful processing. These measures ensure an appropriate security level. Redteam® Creations Limited will periodically check if the system needs adjustment due to technological developments.

Redteam® Creations Limited will no longer store data than necessary to carry out the described purpose.

REVIEWING PERSONAL DATA

Client has a right to see, change or request deletion of client's personal data. Personal data will only be corrected if information is factually incorrect or incomplete or if such is processed contrary to legislation. If Client wishes to withdraw its consent for the use of its personal data, Redteam® Creations Limited will honor such request. The deletion of personal data may lead to problems with regard to the performance of Services on behalf of the client. Redteam® Creations Limited will ensure that all of client's personal data is deleted upon termination of the relationship between parties unless Redteam® Creations Limited has a legal obligation to retain such.

SPAM

Redteam® Creations Limited does not use personal data to send undesired e-mails. If a client gives its explicit authorization, Redteam® Creations Limited can send client promotions per email. Client may withdraw its permission to allow Redteam® Creations Limited to send these offers at any time.

Redteam® Creations Limited is always free to send clients e-mails with regard to the Services of Redteam® Creations Limited, including new possibilities available within the Services, possible down-time of the website and/or ZEN, etc.

COOKIES

Redteam® Creations Limited makes use of cookies in order to provide an optimal service. A "cookie" is a small piece of information that is stored in the website on the client's computer. It is not possible to use ZEN if the client does not allow cookies on its computer.

Redteam® Creations Limited only uses cookies for administrative uses. For example, to register a client's preferences for a certain type of information or client's password so that the client doesn't have to enter this information with each new visit to ZEN.

One type of cookie, a persistent cookie, is made as soon as the client logs into ZEN. The next time that the client visits ZEN, the persistent cookie allows Redteam® Creations Limited to recognize the client as a known user so that the client doesn't have to log in before ordering Services. In order to view personal data (such as a telephone number) or to change personal data, client will need to log in again even if a persistent cookie has been saved.

Another type of cookie is the session cookie. A session cookie is used to record a certain visit to ZEN and will be automatically deleted upon the end of the session. Most cookies are session cookies.

The cookie cannot be read by another website than the website that made the cookie. No cookie contains information with which it is possible to contact client via telephone, e-mail or mail.

PERSONAL DATA OF THIRD PARTIES

Client warrants that it is entitled to make available to Redteam® Creations Limited for processing all information necessary in order for Redteam® Creations Limited to perform its Services. This information is processed in accordance with the General Conditions Redteam® Creations Limited. In any case the data shall be destroyed by Redteam® Creations Limited 3 months after completion of the applicable assignment.

APPLICABLE LAW

By using the Services, Client agrees that the laws of the Netherlands will govern this privacy policy and any dispute of any sort that might arise between client and Redteam® Creations Limited. Any dispute between parties arising here under will be placed before a qualified court in Utrecht, The Netherlands.

MISCELLANEOUS

Redteam® Creations Limited maintains this privacy policy in order to ensure that the privacy policy satisfies the requirements and wishes of its clients and also to ensure that legal requirements regarding personal data are met. We may amend this privacy policy at any time by posting the amended terms on this website. All amended terms automatically take effect 30 days after they are initially posted on the website.
